As our international fixer, Dugan was a pleasure to work with - hard working, intuitive at problem solving, and a consummate professional. Not only that, but he was extremely personable and simply a joy to travel with. He handled situations with grace. I would work with him again in a heartbeat.

Robert Muratore

The best thing about working with Tsuyoshi was that when I entrusted him with our project, he never ran out of ideas or solutions to pass by me. He was passionate about the work we were doing.
